LUXURY GOLF TOURS

NEW ZEALAND

Day 1 – Welcome to New Zealand! Upon arrival in Christchurch you'll have the chance to rest up in the 'Garden City'. Take this opportunity to acquaint yourself with the city by riding the tramway or even by taking a punt along the Avon. End the day with a meal and drink along Oxford Street.

Stay: Christchurch

Day 2 – Today you'll take in your first round of golf at a NZ PGA Championship course, Clearwater Golf Course. Afterwards the city is yours to take in anything you didn't get a chance to do the day before. You could wander the botanical gardens, check out one of the galleries or museums, or simply take in some people watching at Cathedral Square.

Play: Clearwater Golf Course

Stay: Christchurch

Day 3 – On day 3 the morning is yours to explore the city or to take a trip out towards Arthur's Pass. Another option could be to take a day trip to Akaroa, a small town with a strong French influence set around a beautiful harbour. This afternoon you'll make your way towards the Southern Alps to spend the night at Terrace Downs.

Stay: Terrace Downs

Day 4 – Today you start the day with a round at Terrace Downs Golf Course. With its location in the shadow of New Zealand's most prominent mountain range, there are few scenic alpine courses like it. After golf you'll start to make your way to Queenstown, stopping for the night at Tekapo. Make sure you have your cameras ready, as you're going to need them here!

Day 5 – This morning you make your way onward to Queenstown, New Zealand's most recognised tourism based city. On the way there you'll stop in at Twizel for a scenic helicopter flight around New Zealand's tallest mountain, Aoraki/Mt Cook. Here you'll view spectacular hanging glaciers and rivers of moving ice, promising you a flight you will never forget. Once in Queenstown the evening is yours to divulge in the spectacular culinary and liquid delights of the city centre.
